

My response to the Inspectors letter is that there certainly should be additional hearings of the Core Strategy Examination, The District Council needs to be given some time to reassess and almost certainly reduce the quantum of housing it wishes to see in the Core Strategy. Surprisingly , so far there has been no public discussion whatsoever amongst councillors on this - no recall of the LDF subcommittee, no debate at Council.

Councillor Chris Black