

Response to Government Statement:

The Regional Strategies have now been abolished. This will place full responsibility on Rochford to ensure that its planning framework will continue to maximize opportunities to deliver affordable housing in the borough for the foreseeable future

Susan Rydings
Business Improvement Manager
Swan Housing Association