(as amended)

Town and County Planning (Local Planning) (England) Regulations 2012

In accordance with Regulations 26 and 35 of the Town and Country Planning (Local Planning) (England) Regulations 2012 notice is hereby given that Rochford District Council adopted the Hockley Area Action Plan at a meeting of Council on 25 February 2014.

The Hockley Area Action Plan sets out the Council's vision for Hockley centre and seeks to ensure a high quality of life for local residents, offer an improved environment, as well as better access to employment, homes, shops, leisure and other services.

The Hockley Area Action Plan was subject to independent examination by a Planning Inspector. The Inspector found the Hockley Area Action Plan to be sound, subject to a number of modifications pursuant to Section 23 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004. These modifications are set out in the Inspector's Report, and were made to the Hockley Area Action Plan prior to its adoption.

Any person aggrieved by the Hockley Area Action Plan may make an application to the High Court under Section 113 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 on the grounds that the plan is not within the appropriate powers and/or a procedural requirement has not been complied with. Any such application must be made promptly, and in any event, no later than Tuesday 8 April 2014 (6 weeks after the date of adoption specified above).

The Inspector's Report, Hockley Area Action Plan and supporting documents are available to view on the Council's website www.rochford.gov.uk, at the Council Offices, and at libraries within the District during normal opening hours.
