

Hockley Parish Workshop

Tuesday 16th August • 18:00 – 22:00 • 'Old Fire Station'

As part of the early engagement that the Council is undertaking to inform the preparation of the new Local Plan, Rochford District Council is holding a workshop to help explain the role of the Parish Council in plan-making and to discuss the future development of the parish

Agenda

18:00 – 18:30 | Introduction to Hockley

- ✓ A presentation highlighting the role of the Parish council, a look at the key facts and figures, as well as giving initial thought to some local issues in the community

18:30 – 19:30 | A walk around Hockley

- ✓ A chance to look around the village to help understand the role of certain community stakeholders as well as identifying both local issues and opportunities for growth and improvement

19:30 – 19:45 | Refreshments

19:45 – 20:45 | Discussion and Map Session

- ✓ An active discussion and interactive map session centred around the findings of our walk around Hockley

20:45 – 22:00 | Looking to the future and the role of Stakeholders

- ✓ A chance to help set the vision for a future Hockley, looking at opportunities for growth and improvement in local business, infrastructure and housing across the Parish, as well as the role of community involvement moving forward
