

Rayleigh Town Workshop

Monday 12th September • 15:00 – 18:00 • The Mill

As part of the early engagement that the Council is undertaking to inform the preparation of the new Local Plan, Rochford District Council is holding a workshop to help explain the role of the Town Council in plan-making and to discuss the future development of the town

Agenda

15:00 – 15:30 | Introduction to Rayleigh

- ✓ A presentation highlighting the role of the Town council, a look at the key facts and figures, as well as giving initial thought to some local issues in the community

15:30 – 16:30 | A walk around Rayleigh

- ✓ A chance to look around the Town to help understand the role of certain community stakeholders as well as identifying both local issues and opportunities for growth and improvement

16:30 – 16:45 | Refreshments

16:45 – 17:30 | Discussion and Map Session

- ✓ An active discussion and interactive map session centred around the findings of our walk around Rayleigh

17:30 – 18:00 | Looking to the future and the role of Stakeholders

- ✓ A chance to help set the vision for a future Rayleigh, looking at opportunities for growth and improvement in local business, infrastructure and housing across the Town, as well as the role of community involvement moving forward
