

Rayleigh Windmill Exhibitions 2019

The following exhibitions will take place on the second floor of the Windmill during the 2019 season. Visitors can also 'meet the artists', who will be there with their exhibition during opening hours. The Windmill is open from until the 29th of September on Wednesdays from 10am-1pm and Saturdays and Sundays from 1-4pm. Entry is FREE; a minimum £1 donation per person is encouraged.

Wednesday 4th September – Sunday 8th September 2019

David Taylor

Left school in 1967 with an A level in art and not much else, I succumbed to an apprenticeship. Through work I had outlets which honed my artistic skills greatly as I was challenged with recreating old masters and paintings by many well-known artists. To be able to copy these masters as commissions really taught me a lot. As a rock music fan, I enjoy painting rock and film star tributes, and I am concentrating on smaller paintings.

Kath Fraser – Not Just a Pile of Rubbish

I am an experimental, abstract artist with a fascination for colour, pattern and texture of materials. Working with mixed media. This exhibition includes paintings, print and three-dimensional work on the question "What do, and can we do with rubbish?"

Wednesday 18th September – Wednesday 25th September 2019

John Adams – Documenting Magic

I have been a practising artist and teacher for over forty years and was one of the first teachers of photography in schools. I live and have a small studio in Leigh Old Town. My work is extremely diverse, and I guess this is due to my experiences in art, education and life in general. Once I have an idea, I look at all the ways I can express that idea to find what is appropriate. Whether I make a memory box or a collage, sculpture or photograph I see my ideas as capturing a bit of magic whether it is constructed on a workbench, in a photographic darkroom or through the lens of a camera.

Saturday 28th September – Sunday 29th September 2019

Dave Gilmore

I have painted most of my life, and my painting interests have varied over the years. I always work in oils, and subject matter includes figure studies, landscapes, wildlife, abstract and surrealist genres.

I am very pleased to be back at the windmill for the fourth year running and during this time I will be using the gallery as a studio and painting live day the mill is open, so why not pop in for a chat.

Important – Please be aware that due to private events the Windmill will be closed on the following dates:

Saturday 7th September

Saturday 14th September

Saturday 21st September 2019
