

Rayleigh Columbarium and Memorial Wall

Rochford District Council is pleased to present a new facility at its Rayleigh Cemetery

The Columbarium, a place dedicated to the placing of loved ones cremated remains in a dignified and worthy resting place, within niches sized to hold two standard poly urns and closed by a polished and engraved granite plaque.

The niches are let under a licence for 30 years, which may be extended. As the cremated remains have not been interred they may easily be moved whenever you require.

The plaques may be engraved with up to seven lines of text, each consisting of 20 letters and spaces. The plaque may also be decorated by a motif, we offer four standard designs, a rose, dove, cross and a cross intertwined by a rose, however other motifs may be incorporated, such as regimental badges, club symbols and tokens or religious symbols if the art work is provided. Another option is to include a colour cameo photograph fixed to the granite plaque.

The Columbarium is set within a pleasant area of the cemetery, on high ground, with tasteful seating for quiet contemplation, overlooking an established bed of peace roses.

Cremated remains may be scattered beneath the turf, under the trees in a quiet part of the cemetery, with a memorial being placed on the memorial wall if required. The place of the spreading will not be marked in any way.

The memorial wall is a beautiful red brick wall, incorporating teak benches.

Memorials of polished granite may be placed on the wall. Each memorial may have up to four lines of text each of up to 20 letters and spaces. A motif similar to that on the Columbarium plaques may also be included as may a coloured cameo photograph. Each plaque space is licensed for a period of fifteen years which may be extended.

The wooden benches on the Columbarium site may be dedicated, either on a shared or exclusive basis, by attaching a polished plaque with a simple dedication.
